Directions

By Car

From London via A23 through Redhill

By Car

From M25 (Junction 8) Reigate Hill

Follow A217 down Reigate Hill, go over the level crossing and follow the signs marked Gatwick → A217 through the Reigate one way system. When you have passed the cinema (on your right), at the next traffic lights turn left into Bell Street. Continue straight up the A217 into Cockshot Hill. When you get to the bottom of Cockshot Hill there are some traffic lights (Angel Pub on left) turn left and follow this road (Woodhatch Road). At mini roundabout, bear right, continue for 1 mile. After this distance turn left following A&E signs. At the staggered junction traffic lights go straight ahead into Three Arch Road.

Parking can be found at the end of Canada Avenue in the Golf Club, this costs £3 per day.

The Postgraduate Centre, situated in Maple House, is the first building on the right as you turn into the hospital grounds.

By Train

The most convenient mainline station is Redhill. If you are coming from London frequent services leave from Victoria or alternatively, London Bridge (you may need to change trains at East Croydon). Taxis are available from outside Redhill train station, which is approximately three miles from the hospital.

By Air

East Surrey Hospital is just 10 minutes by taxi from Gatwick Airport.

By Bus

Opposite Redhill Train station you can catch a bus straight to the hospital.

Numbers: 100, 435, 540 and 32
